Africa.....

The Context and the Conversation.

It's a big place.....

There are a lot of people there....1 billion going onto 2 billion....

They are young

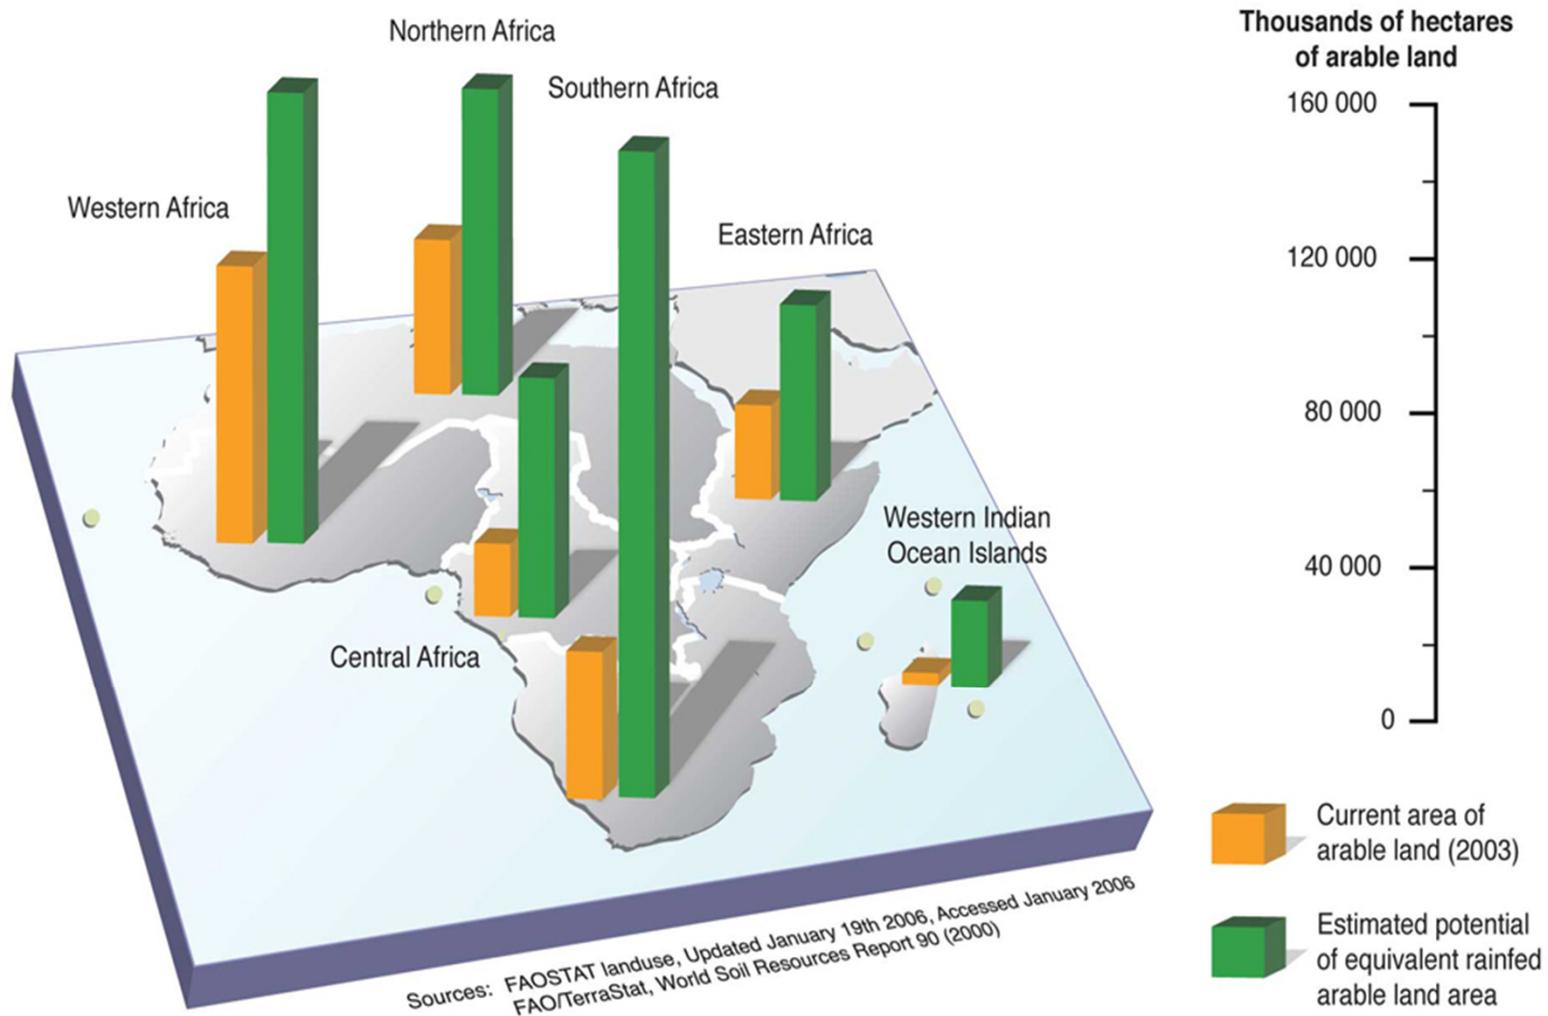

... and heading to the city

.... yet... child labour

... but the countryside ... agriculture ... 60!!!

An infographic featuring a light beige silhouette of the African continent centered on a teal background with a wavy pattern. The number '65%' is written in large, bold, red font across the upper part of the continent. Two overlapping red banners with white text are positioned diagonally across the lower part of the continent. The top banner reads 'MOBILE' and the bottom banner reads 'PENETRATION'.
