Day 1 – Ontario Employment and Labour Fall webinar series

Wednesday, October 12, 2022 | 12-1 pm ET

Presenters	Topic	Description
Adrian Miedema	Are you responsible for the safety of your contractors – and subcontractors?	Occupational health and safety legislation imposes broad duties on employers for the safety of not only their employees, but also their subcontractors. Learn about the scope of those duties, what courts have said, and what employers can do to comply and avoid charges and fines.
Meaghen Russell	Best practices when ending the employment relationship	Termination meetings can be difficult. Join us for tips and best practices for managing employee terminations effectively and to better understand the requirements relating to employment terminations from a legal compliance perspective.
Emily Kroboth	Best practices for workplace investigations	The Occupational Health and Safety Act requires employers to undertake workplace investigations that are “reasonable” in the circumstances, upon receipt of an employee’s complaint. In this webinar, we will unpack some best practices employers should consider when completing a workplace investigation.
