Welcome Remarks

Sonia Martin is a partner in Dentons' Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice. She serves as managing partner of the Firm's San Francisco and Oakland offices and is also a member of the Firm's US Board.

Sonia has extensive experience defending consumer class actions against insurers and financial institutions, including claims for alleged violations of California's Unfair Competition Act, Business and Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. Sonia also defends insurers in bad faith and insurance coverage litigation.

She has successfully tried cases in state and federal court, argued matters before the California Court of Appeal and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and obtained published decisions in many cases of first impression

Stafford Matthews

Office Managing Partner, Silicon Valley

+1 650 798 0380

stafford.matthews@dentons.com

The Future of Smart Contracts (10:00 – 11:00 a.m.)

Stafford Matthews is a technology transactions and intellectual property lawyer and the managing partner of the Silicon Valley office of the global law firm Dentons. He is a US Co-Chair of Dentons Global Technology Media and Telecommunications (TMT) Sector and has been recognized by the US Legal 500 in Venture Capital and Emerging Companies. Mr. Matthews is one of only 11 lawyers in the United States selected as a 2016 BTI Client Services All-Star in the field of Competition and Antitrust Law.

Mr. Matthews is dual qualified as an English solicitor and a US lawyer and has extensive experience in both European and Asian markets. He represents technology and industrial companies worldwide in complex contract negotiations; strategic development and the licensing and exploitation of intellectual property and products; litigation and arbitration of contentious contract disputes; the implementation and use of blockchain and smart contract systems; transactional antitrust and competition law matters in the US and the EU; and the negotiation of cross border alliances and joint development ventures.

Stafford has degrees from University of California at Berkeley, A.B. in Rhetoric, the University of Michigan Law School, and Kings College London, where he holds a post-graduate diploma in European Union Competition Law. He speaks and writes extensively on current legal issues, including the integration of law and technologies such as artificial intelligence, machine learning and smart contracts.

Ausra Deluard
Counsel, Oakland

ausra.deluard@dentons.com

Ethics Issues for In-House Counsel in 2020 (Ethics) (11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.)

Ausra is a member of Dentons' national Health Care practice group, resident in the Oakland office. Her current practice focus is on helping clients in the nascent cannabis industry achieve their business objectives by advising them on the sector's rapidly evolving laws and regulations. Ausra's experience in high-stakes antitrust litigation in the M&A context and in civil and criminal investigations was excellent preparation for counseling companies in avoiding the liability risks of operating in a highly regulated consumer industry. Meanwhile, Ausra continues to advise clients across sectors on contentious and non-contentious antitrust matters relating to proposed acquisitions, global pricing and distribution policies, competitor collaboration, licensing arrangements, interlocking directorates and pharmaceutical settlements.

Ausra earned her JD from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, where she was assistant editor for the Berkeley International Law Journal. She is an adjunct professor at UC Hastings College of Law.
