Webinar

On May 23, 2017, the long-awaited final report from the Changing Workplaces Review was released, proposing a number of significant changes to Ontario's labour and employment laws that affect both unionized and non-unionized workplaces. The Dentons' Employment and Labour law group hosted a complimentary one-hour webinar to discuss the report and what the proposed changes mean to your organization.

CPD accreditation

This program is eligible for 1 substantive hour required by the Law Society of Upper Canada.
