

The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA): What Employers Need to Know

Date and time:

Start: April 10, 2020, 11:00 AM EDT

End: April 10, 2020, 11:30 AM EDT

Thank you for your interest in Dentons' weekly webinar series on policy and critical issues related to COVID-19 in the US. For those who were able to participate, we hope you found the program clear and informative. During this interactive discussion, we provided a briefing on the recently-enacted FFCRA and implementing regulations promulgated by the Department of Labor this past week. We discussed the key obligations for employers under the FFCRA, its interplay with the other laws it amends (the FLSA and FMLA), and key areas and issues employers need to be aware of as they attempt to comply with the FFCRA. We also addressed coverage under the FFCRA, how it is to be administered, and questions. If you were unable to join the program, not to worry—we recorded it.
