

4TH ANNUAL DENTONS DATA SUMMIT

PRIVACY 2.0: NEW LAWS, NEW TECHNOLOGIES, AND NEW APPROACHES

Grow | Protect | Operate | Finance

Part 1: Part 1: Learning session 1-3:15 p.m.

Time	Торіс	Speakers
1–1:10 p.m.	Welcome and introduction	Kirsten Thompson , Partner, National Practice Group Lead, Private and Cybersecurity (Toronto)
1:10-1:30 p.m.	Bills, bills, bills—A rapid fire round of developments, progress and business impacts
	Bill C-27 —Proposed federal Consumer Privacy Protection Act, and Artificial Intelligence Data Act	Luca Lucarini, Associate (Toronto)
	Bill 64 —Update on Quebec's private sector privacy law – new regulations, guidance, and commentary	Alexandra Quigley , Senior Associate (Montreal)
	Guideline B-13 —OSFI's proposed new expectations for how federally regulated financial institutions manage technology and cyber risks	Noah Walters, Associate (Toronto)
	Bill C-26 —Proposed Critical Cyber Systems Protection Act would impose obligations on organizations that have cyber systems that "are critically important to vital services and vital systems"	Kate Wiltse , Associate (Calgary) and Sasha Coutu , Associate (Ottawa)
	Accreditation
	Law Society of British Columbia: 15 minutes Practice Management Credit
	Law Society of Ontario: 15 minutes Professionalism Credit
	Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet the CLE requirements of the Barreau du Québec de l'ontario
	accidantea agreco

2:05-2:40 p.m.Around the world Key developments overseas, with insights and commentary from our global colleagues: a. China-new cybersecurity laws and their application and enforcementKelly Osaka, Partner (Calgary) Pascal Jiang, Partner (Shanghai) Simon Elliott, Partner (UK) Peter Stockburger, Partner (San E Deter Stockburger, Partner (San E Peter Stockburger, Partner (San E E Substantive Credit2:40-3:15 p.m.Emerging risk areas: Dark patterns What they areand how you're probably using them:Jaime Cardy, Senior Associate (Calgary)	1:30–2:05 p.m.	 Regulatory roundup—Privacy, CASL and telemarketing What the regulators have been up to, and where the law is going Accreditation Law Society of British Columbia: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Law Society of Ontario: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet the CLE requirements of the Barreau du Québec 	John Lemieux, Partner (Edmonton), Jaime Cardy, Senior Associate (Toronto) Sasha Coutu, Associate (Ottawa)
 2:40-3:15 p.m. Emerging risk areas: Dark patterns What they areand how you're probably using them: Deception (use of dark patterns to induce false beliefs, such as a countdown timer that is irrelevant to an offer expiring) Hidden costs (hiding fees or costs from users until they spend time and enter their information to get to a checkout page, only to find there are significant additional fees that were not disclosed up front) Asymmetric presentation (making one option (such as agreeing to information sharing) very prominent and accessible, while the other options (such as opting out of information-sharing) are difficult to locate) 	2:05-2:40 p.m.	 Around the world Key developments overseas, with insights and commentary from our global colleagues: a. China-new cybersecurity laws and their application and enforcement b. UK-is the GDPR still the relevant? c. US-the US privacy patchwork, and who's doing what Accreditation Law Society of British Columbia: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Law Society of Ontario: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet 	Pascal Jiang, Partner (Shanghai)
 Zuckering", nudging, friend spam, and more. Accreditation Law Society of British Columbia: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Law Society of Ontario: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet the CLE requirements of the Barreau du Québec 	2:40-3:15 p.m.	 Emerging risk areas: Dark patterns What they areand how you're probably using them: Deception (use of dark patterns to induce false beliefs, such as a countdown timer that is irrelevant to an offer expiring) Hidden costs (hiding fees or costs from users until they spend time and enter their information to get to a checkout page, only to find there are significant additional fees that were not disclosed up front) Asymmetric presentation (making one option (such as agreeing to information sharing) very prominent and accessible, while the other options (such as opting out of information-sharing) are difficult to locate) Learn about "roach motels", "confirm shaming", "privacy Zuckering", nudging, friend spam, and more. Accreditation Law Society of British Columbia: 30 minutes Substantive Credit Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet 	Jaime Cardy, Senior Associate (Toronto) Danielle Dudelzak, Associate (Calgary) Melika Mostowfi, Associate (Calgary)

Part 2: Workshop session 3:30-5 p.m.

Stream 1	Stream 2
Privacy Officer Workshop: Tricky Issues in privacy management	Workplace Privacy Workshop-Employee monitoring, new technologies, and remote workforces Speakers Meaghen Russell, Partner (Toronto) Eleni Kassaris, Partner (Vancouver) Jen Rees-Jones, Senior Manager, Privacy & Data (Toronto)
Speakers
Kirsten Thompson , Partner, National Practice Group Lead, Private and Cybersecurity (Toronto) Danielle Dudelzak , Associate (Calgary)
 Aggregation, deidentification and anonymizaton: what's the difference, and how do I know? Service provider/processor re-use of data for product improvement – is it allowed? Problem child: how to ensure children's information is (a) avoided; or (b) effectively managed Sensitive personal information: new requirements, new considerations 	 Employee monitoring Legal requirements, new laws What's included, what's not How does a monitoring policy work with a privacy policy? Emerging privacy issues with hybrid/remote workforces How do I know where they are? Location checking by employers Use of cameras-in vehicles, in laptops, on premises, and body worn
Takeaways
 Determining sensitivity cheat sheet Data management framework for childrens' information 	 3. New technologies in the workplace Artificial intelligence applications in hiring and performance management/career pathing: how to manage risk
Accreditation	Biometrics: permissible and impermissible uses,
 Law Society of British Columbia: 60 minutes Practice Management + 30 minutes Substantive Credit 	registration requirements 4. Snooping employees
 Law Society of Ontario: 60 minutes Professionalism + 30 minutes Substantive Credit 	Update on case law, best practices
 Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet the CLE requirements of the Barreau du Québec 	TakewaysEmployee monitoring checklist
LAW SOCIETY OF ONTARIO accredited agréée	 Accreditation Law Society of British Columbia: 90 minutes Substantive Credit Law Society of Ontario: 90 minutes Substantive Credit Barreau du Québec: In our view, this session would meet the CLE requirements of the Barreau du Québec 	