

Dentons Russia awarded IP Firm of the Year

April 4, 2014

London —Dentons Russia has been awarded Russia IP Firm of the Year at the Managing IP Global Awards ceremony 2014 which took place in the Dorchester Hotel in London. The award has been received by Dentons' London partner and IP, Technology and Communications practice head Tatiana Kruse.

The Dentons Russian IP Practice has once again proved its leadership position in the market. As in previous years, awards were presented to the firms behind the most innovative and challenging IP work of the past year. The awards ceremony recognized the leading firms from the major jurisdictions around the world and highlighted those firms, individuals and companies driving the IP market at an international level.
