Dentons today announces the appointment of Richard Singer as its new European Chief Operating Officer. Richard Singer joined Dentons from White & Case and is based in the Prague office.

Singer has over five and a half years' experience with White &Case, most recently as the EMEA Director of Strategic Projects and prior to that as the Chief Operating Officer for Central and Eastern Europe. He also has more than 15 years experience in various strategic, operational and business development roles including working at Arthur Andersen and Ernst & Young. Singer will be responsible for Europe's business support teams including finance, HR, IT, business development and marketing teams. He will also be a member of the Global Operating Committee.

Tomasz Dabrowski, CEO of Europe commented: "We are delighted to welcome Richard to the team. His background in operational and business development roles across Central and Eastern Europe as well as the broader EMEA region, are an excellent fit. His appointment will support further improvements to the operational efficiency and business performance of the firm both at a regional and global level."
Richard Singer added: "I am very much looking forward to joining Dentons and working with both the Europe and global team to help deliver the firm's ambitious strategy going forward."
