

Dentons welcomes Real Estate partner Allison Ostapowich to Edmonton

DENTONS

November 28, 2014

Edmonton —Dentons Canada LLP is pleased to announce that Allison Ostapowich, one of Edmonton's leading real estate lawyers, has joined its Real Estate Group as a partner in the Edmonton office.

With more than 10 years' experience, Allison's practice encompasses all aspects of commercial and residential real estate, with an emphasis on acquisitions and sales of business and real estate, financing and commercial leasing. In addition, Allison leverages her wealth of knowledge in financial services, offering her clients a more robust perspective on their matters. She acts for purchasers and vendors with respect to the acquisition and disposition of multi-tenanted complexes, industrial and agricultural properties, and with commercial real estate financing and leasing, and in residential real estate transactions and financing.

"We are delighted to have Allison as a partner in our accomplished real estate team," said Carman McNary Q.C., Managing Partner of Dentons' Edmonton office. "Allison's experience and her outstanding reputation in both the legal and local communities make her a great addition to the Edmonton office and to Dentons, nationally and globally."

According to Dick Haldane Q.C., head of Dentons' Real Estate group in Edmonton, "Allison is a valuable addition to our team, with excellent and broad range of local knowledge. She fills out our capabilities and strengthens our future."

In addition to managing her large and diverse law practice, Allison is active in both the legal community and the community at large, including as an active member of the CREW Network, and participates with the Membership Committee.
