Dentons has been shortlisted for several awards at The Lawyer European Awards 2015, including Law Firm of the Year, Banking & Finance and Energy, Projects and Infrastructure 'deal of the year' awards. The winners will be announced at the awards ceremony in London on the 12 March.

Dentons advisory role with Lotos Petrobaltic on its financing for the B8 Oil Field Exploration Project in the Baltic Sea was shortlisted for the Banking & Finance deal of the year award. This pioneering financing is the first Central European exploration initiative to be funded on a project finance basis. In addition, it is the first transaction involving Polish Investments for Development (PIR) under the "Polish Investments" governmental program and the financing employed was the first of this type successfully launched in the region in recent years.

Dentons was shortlisted for the Energy, Projects and Infrastructure deal of the year category for its advisory role in Polskie Sieci Elektroenergetyczne (PSE), the Polish electricity Transmission System Operator (TSO) construction of a cross-border power grid interconnection with Lithuania (LitPol Link) which will integrate the Baltic States Power system with the Electricity System in Continental Europe. This outstanding project will play a key role in strengthen the power independence of both Poland and Lithuania and the interconnected Baltic States and it contributes to the development of an integrated EU electricity market.

Dentons has also been shortlisted alongside Baker & McKenzie, Bird & Bird, CMS, Goltsblat BLP and Eversheds for the International Law Firm of the Year accolade. Our associated office in Istanbul was also shortlisted in the Turkey Law Firm of the Year category.
