

Dentons ranked among top law firms in Russia by Kommersant

April 8, 2016

Moscow —Kommersant a leading Russian daily newspaper, ranked Dentons as the number one law firm in Tax Disputes, Litigation and PPP and the number two law firm in Competition its annual Top 5 law firm rankings by practice. Kommersant bases its rankings on the complexity, uniqueness and value of projects handled by the law firms operating in the Russian market. The researchers also consider rankings in international legal directories, including Chambers Global, Chambers Europe and The Legal 500.

Dentons' Tax and Customs team, ranked Band 1 by Chambers and Partners, added 4 lawyers from leading law firms in 2015 and provides full service advice to the Firm's clients, including advice on deoffshorisation and transfer pricing issues.

Dentons' Litigation and Arbitration practice is one of the leading dispute resolution practices in Russia and has handled some of the most significant and precedent-setting cases in the country and abroad. The practice combines 25 lawyers and provides first-rate legal advice to the Firm's Russian and international clients.

Dentons' PPP practice represents both the private and state sectors in infrastructure projects, and has in-depth experience working with lenders. The Firm's lawyers have assisted clients in key federal and regional public-private partnerships in Russia and other CIS countries.

With vast experience resolving complex antitrust issues in Russia and the CIS, Dentons has one of the largest and most reputable Competition law practices in the region. The Firm's lawyers have represented clients in antitrust and competition law matters – from implementation of compliance programs to competition law disputes – in Russia, Kazakhstan, Azerbaijan, Uzbekistan, Belarus, Ukraine and other CIS countries. The practice also advises Russian companies on their projects in EU countries.
