

Dentons hires new Employment partner in Italy

February 12, 2018

Dentons announced the hire of Davide Boffi as partner in the Employment and Labor practice. He joins from Italian law firm Ughi e Nunziante along with associate Marco Alessandro Prandelli and trainee Francesca Servadei. They will be based in the Milan office.

Davide Boffi specializes in employment and labor law, as well as in agency contracts. He regularly provides assistance to Italian and foreign companies on complex employment issues related to day-to-day HR management, and on extraordinary corporate transactions. He has notable experience in litigation and out of court matters, in particular with reference to companies' reorganizations and industrial relations.

Federico Sutti, Italy Managing Partner, stated: "The hire of Davide Boffi and his team consolidates our top-tier Employment practice, and confirms our positioning among main players of this market."

Aldo Calza, Head of the Employment and Labor practice in Italy and Co-Head of the Europe Employment Group, added: "The joining of Davide and his team adds quality and great value to our practice in Italy and to the entire Firm. Moreover, in spite of his young age, Davide is already well-recognized on an international level, and his hire represents a step forward for both our Europe and global practices."

Davide Boffi commented: "I am honored to be part of Dentons. The Firm's reputation and the high quality of its work drove my choice. I am proud to join a team of esteemed and cohesive professionals led by exceptional leadership."

With these new hires, the Employment and Labor practice in Italy -part of the global team of over 410 lawyers- counts nine professionals including three partners.
