

Dentons Canada welcomes a well-respected 10-member team to the Firm's Real Estate and Litigation practice

July 24, 2018

Toronto —Dentons is pleased to welcome a team of 10 new colleagues from McLean & Kerr LLP, a boutique law firm widely-respected in the Toronto market for its commercial real estate and litigation practices.

"I am very pleased to welcome this impressive team of exceptional talent to Dentons," said Beth Wilson, Dentons Canada Chief Executive Officer. "Dentons Canada is currently undergoing tremendous growth, which is being fueled by our clients benefitting from our global platform, our focus on innovation, and the quality and expertise of our local teams". We are thrilled to have the McLean & Kerr team join us at such an exciting time."

Joining as partners are Todd Davidson and Sharon Addison. Todd, a partner in the Real Estate group, has a practice focused on leasing, and purchase, sale and financing transactions, and Sharon, a partner in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution group, brings extensive experience and knowledge in real estate-related litigation matters.

Other individuals joining the Firm include Stuart LeMesurier, Leanne Fasciano and Elaine Gray as counsel; and Michelle Haché, Lopa Raulino, Anna Damasio, Vicki Lau and Mildred Nunes.

"Dentons' commitment to innovation is something that resonates strongly with us," says Sharon Addison. "Our clients are increasingly looking to us to provide innovative approaches to not just their legal needs, but also their broader business challenges. This holistic approach to working with clients is just one of the reasons we're so pleased to be part of the Dentons team."

"Our move to Dentons is a new and exciting chapter in our professional careers," says Todd Davidson. "As part of the world's largest global law firm, we are able to provide the range of service offerings and technology solutions that will help drive results for our clients."

The arrival of the McLean & Kerr team aligns with the Firm's plan to grow significantly in Canada's major markets, including Toronto.

"We are focused on being the leading global firm in the Toronto market," said Blair McCreddie, Managing Partner of Dentons' Toronto office. "Adding depth and breadth to our team in Toronto is a key national priority for Dentons. This impressive group of individuals will provide added strength to our commercial real estate and leasing, commercial litigation, and construction practices as we continue to grow to meet the needs of our clients."
