

Dentons welcomes new Managing Director in Toronto

April 30, 2019

Toronto —Dentons is pleased to announce Thomas (Tom) Redekopp has joined the Firm as Managing Director in our Corporate group.

Based in Toronto, Tom's practice focuses on U.S. mergers and acquisitions and U.S. securities. He also advises clients on U.S. corporate law, contract law, corporate governance, investments in operating companies and other corporate matters.

"We are delighted to welcome Tom as part of our expanding practices in securities, mergers and acquisitions," said Blair McCreadie, Managing Partner of Dentons' Toronto office. "Because of his extensive U.S. experience with both public and private companies in M&A and capital markets transactions, Tom will allow us to offer our clients a seamless U.S. cross-border transaction practice as part of an integrated team of Dentons lawyers on both sides of the Canada-U.S. border."

Tom is passionate about M&A and frequently assists boards of directors, special committees and transaction committees in M&A, including in structuring M&A and in assessing and managing actual and potential conflicts of interest.

Tom represents companies operating in the technology, life sciences, renewable and clean energy, food and beverage, construction and utilities sectors.

Tom is ranked for Corporate/M&A in the 2017 and 2018 edition of Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business and was also listed as "up and coming" for Corporate/M&A in the 2014-2016 editions.

Tom is a graduate of the University of Toronto Faculty of Law and the University of Waterloo Faculty of Engineering (Electrical). He is a member of the Bar in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and a Foreign Legal Consultant in Ontario.
