

Dentons welcomes new Canada CFO to the Firm

DENTONS

March 11, 2019

Montréal —Dentons is pleased to welcome Andrea Nicholls to the Firm as Canada Chief Financial Officer. Based in Montréal, Andrea is a CPA and a seasoned finance professional with experience in both private and public companies spanning various sectors, including high-tech, finance, multimedia, digital, pharma and shared services.

“We are very excited to welcome Andrea to the Firm,” said Rick Scott, Partner and Presiding Member, Dentons Canada Board. “She is an influential change agent with an impressive track record in building and developing high-performing finance teams, financial planning and analysis, and leading business process improvement. I personally am looking forward to bringing her on given her experience driving strategic initiatives and overall organization improvements in each of her former roles.”

Most recently, Andrea led the finance operations and financial reporting at Triton Digital, Inc., where she was also a member of the management team that successfully completed the sale of the company to new ownership in the US. Andrea comes to Dentons with significant professional services experience, having spent the first 13 years of her career in public accounting at PwC Montreal, as a Senior Manager in the Assurance practice.

“Andrea will be an incredibly valuable addition to Dentons,” said Beth Wilson, Dentons Canada Chief Executive Officer. “She is excited about the changes we are implementing at Dentons, the disruption we are creating in the legal profession, and is embracing the opportunity for the Firm’s finance team to lead the way in our pursuit of innovative client service and operational excellence.

Beth continued, “Andrea already lives our differentiated management approach, and will be able to guide our finance team as they continue to bring strategic value and insight to our business.”
