WirtschaftsWoche has listed five Dentons partners as "highly recommended" in its latest ranking of lawyers in Germany. The analysis, conducted together with the Handelsblatt Research Institute, identifies the most renowned lawyers in the areas of restructuring, competition, mergers and acquisitions and public procurement.

Andreas Ziegenhagen, Germany Managing Partner and Head of the Europe Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy practice, ranks among the top lawyers for restructuring.

Dr. Jörg Karenfort, Head of the Europe Competition and Antitrust practice, and Dr. René Grafunder, Competition and Antitrust partner, are among the top lawyers for competition.

Dr. Christof Kautzsch, Co-head of the Europe Corporate practice, is listed among the top M&A lawyers in Germany.

Dr. Wolfram Krohn, partner for Public Procurement, ranks among Germany's best lawyers in this field of law.

The Handelsblatt Research Institute surveyed more than 4400 lawyers in Competition and M&A and more than 1000 lawyers in Restructuring, to assess their most respected peers. The recommendations were then submitted to a panel of experts who made the final selection. The jury included legal representatives of Bosch, Commerzbank, RWE, Thyssenkrupp and Deutsche Bahn, amongst others.
