

Dentons becomes a member of the Legal Diversity & Inclusion Alliance

February 24, 2020

Brussels —Dentons Brussels is pleased to become a member of the Legal Diversity & Inclusion Alliance (LDIA), a collective effort by several law firms in Belgium.

By joining the LDIA, member firms affirm their commitment to creating a diverse and inclusive work environment, exchanging good practices on diversity and inclusion, and raising awareness of non-discrimination and diversity issues by combining efforts in organizing events, workshops, trainings, etc.

“For Dentons, joining the LDIA is natural as an extension of our core values. We are committed to providing a dynamic and inclusive work environment and we believe that inclusion and diversity are essential to the success and strength of our Firm. The goals of the LDIA charter fully align with these goals,” said Yolande Meyvis, Partner in the Brussels office.

“I’m very pleased that Dentons has joined LDIA and wants to add to the collective effort several law firms in Belgium are making,” said Kat Van Nuffel, Co-Chair of the Legal Diversity & Inclusion Alliance.

Dentons’ LDIA membership is a further demonstration of the Firm’s commitment to diversity and inclusion. As the legal industry in Belgium sharpens its focus on matters related to diversity and inclusion, Dentons will continue to be among the firms leading this effort.

Dentons’ global statement on diversity and inclusion is available here.

The LDIA was launched in Brussels on January 31, 2019, and takes the form of a pledge to eliminate discrimination in the workplace, to promote an inclusive organizational culture, and to take tangible actions to fulfil the goals outlined in the LDIA charter.
