

Partner Rachel Howie named co-chair of CPR's Canada Advisory Board

October 21, 2020

Dentons is pleased to announce that Partner Rachel Howie, co-leader of the Firm's national ADR and Arbitration group, has been appointed co-chair of The International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR)'s Canada Advisory Board (CAB).

As an invitation-only board, Rachel has been selected to help lead the development and continued growth of alternative dispute resolution practices across Canada. Through the development of best practices, thought leadership and education outreach, Rachel will help to further the CPR's mandate of managing conflict to enable purpose.

The CPR is an independent nonprofit organization that helps prevent and resolve legal conflict more effectively and efficiently. Read CPR's full announcement here.

Congratulations, Rachel!
