

Bloomberg Tax and Accounting has released the Business Operations in Russia portfolio, prepared by Dentons lawyers

May 26, 2021

Lawyers of Dentons St. Petersburg and Moscow offices under the project management of Yana Butrimovich, Manager in the Tax and Customs practice, and Vasilii Markov, partner in the Tax and Customs practice, have authored the updated edition of Business Operations in Russia portfolio for a division of the international analytical agency Bloomberg (Tax and Accounting). This guide is intended for foreign investors (primarily American investors) and their consultants in order to get acquainted with tax and other issues related to doing business in Russia.

This issue of the handbook No. 7330 examines Russian corporate legislation, the judicial system, and the regulation of investment activities in Russia in a form that is accessible to foreign investors. The handbook also thoroughly analyzes Russian tax legislation (corporate and personal taxes, tax benefits and special regimes), trends in Russian tax policy and the most significant judicial practice, aspects of international taxation.
