Dentons grabs top rankings in PitchBook's 2023 annual league tables landing in the Top 10 once again for venture and M&A deals, vaulting past formidable contenders in Silicon Valley and elsewhere around the world. Notably, the Firm once again secured the No. 1 ranking for deal activity outside the US and Europe. Our stellar rankings solidify our unwavering status as the foremost leader on a global scale and historic dominance in this realm.

Dentons has been an unyielding force in PitchBook's rankings for nearly a decade, a testament to our relentless dedication to delivering unmatched results and our reputation as the ultimate choice for startups and emerging growth ventures seeking transformative legal counsel across borders.

Despite market headwinds, the Firm realized 25% growth in 2023. Clients recognize Dentons' strong talent bench and competitive pricing as key factors driving its success, despite market headwinds. Leading the industry across sectors such as energy, healthcare, fintech, AI and cyber, Dentons continues to deliver unparalleled value to investors and their portfolio companies navigating a complex landscape. These sectors are particularly significant for emerging growth companies, venture capital firms, corporate strategic investors and private equity firms, many of whom rely on Dentons' counsel as they expand globally.

"Despite challenges in the market, our extensive global presence and deep bench strength have positioned us for continued substantial growth," said Victor H. Boyajian, Global Head of Dentons Global Venture Technology Group. "I remain highly optimistic as we navigate the evolving landscape and am confident that our innovative approach and client-focused strategies will propel us to even greater heights."

Operating at the intersection of innovation and legal acumen, Dentons' Global Venture Technology Group stands as a boutique within a large global platform, serving 1,500+ startups and emerging growth clients across 15+ sectors. With access to 500+ investor relationships and a presence in 20+ startup centers, Dentons remains unmatched in its global reach and strategic approach, guiding clients from inception to exit with a focus on capital investment, strategic advisory, IP and regulatory challenges.
