

Dentons counsel Diora Ziyaeva appointed to Tashkent International Arbitration Center's panel of arbitrators

October 25, 2021

Dentons counsel Diora Ziyaeva has been appointed to the Tashkent International Arbitration Center's (TIAC) panel of arbitrators. Ziyaeva is a member of Dentons' International Dispute Resolution practice and is a resident in the New York office.

TIAC was established in 2018 under the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Republic of Uzbekistan. It offers fully neutral dispute resolution services to Uzbek and international parties in commercial and investment arbitrations. As a member of the panel of arbitrators, Ziyaeva will be considered for appointments in cases registered with TIAC.

Ziyaeva has over a decade of experience representing corporate clients, states and state-owned entities in investor-state and commercial arbitration proceedings, successfully handling cases ranging in value from US$10 million to US$20 billion, with experience in energy, oil and gas, mining, telecommunications, construction and aerospace disputes in Latin America, Central Asia, Middle East, Eastern Europe, Oceania and Africa. She has been involved as counsel in over two dozen international arbitration proceedings, both institutional (ICSID, LCIA, ICC, ICDR, SIAC, HKAIC and SCC) and ad hoc, as well as post-arbitral disputes (annulment and enforcement) for both private and public operators.

Licensed in New York and Uzbekistan, Ziyaeva advises parties in international litigations involving proceedings in foreign and domestic courts and has represented parties before the federal and state courts in the United States, including the Supreme Court. Ziyaeva has been recognized in 2018 as one of the American Bar Association's On the Rise – Top 40 Young Lawyers, and in in 2021 and 2022 as a "Future Leader" by Who's Who Legal's arbitration.

In addition to her practice, Ziyaeva is a Council on Foreign Relations term member, a mediator certified by the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution and a council member for the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution. Additionally, Ziyaeva serves as an adjunct professor of law at Cornell Law School, where she teaches the practice of international arbitration, and at Fordham University School of Law, where she teaches investment treaty arbitration.
