

Crain's New York Business honors partner Sandra Hauser as 2022 Notable Diverse Leader in Law

DENTONS

July 11, 2022

Crain's New York Business named Sandra Hauser, head of the Dentons US Commercial Litigation practice, to its 2022 list of Notable Diverse Leaders in Law. Recognizing her leadership both within and outside of the courtroom, Hauser was selected for her outstanding professional achievements as well as her involvement with industry and community organizations.

Having practiced at Dentons for 26 years, Hauser has been instrumental in shaping the Firm's business practices, professional development and diversity initiatives. A committed, established and natural leader, she is a member of Dentons' US Region Board, as well as former chair of the Firm's Global Litigation and Dispute Resolution Leadership team. Hauser also serves on Dentons' US and Global Pro Bono committees. She spent 12 years on the Associate Development Committee, where she mentored associates in their professional development.

A preeminent lawyer in the financial services sector, Hauser regularly leads the defense of companies facing class actions and complex commercial cases in trial and appellate courts. Clients regularly rely on Hauser for the creativity and depth she brings to high-stakes and complex disputes.
