

Anna Janik

Managing Practice Development Lawyer

Managing Practice Development Lawyer

London

D +44 20 7246 7384

anna.janik@dentons.com

Overview

Anna Janik is a Managing Practice Development Lawyer based in Dentons' London office. She supports the firm's UK Corporate practice. Her responsibilities include:

- identifying developments in the law and market practice relevant to the firm's UK Corporate practice and providing information and commentary on them to Dentons lawyers and to clients;
- organising and delivering training, both internally and to clients;
- writing and maintaining precedent documents; and
- working on document automation and the roll-out of other legal technology.

Before joining Dentons, Anna practised for 10 years as a transactional lawyer at another City law firm.

Activities and Affiliations

Anna is a committee member of NFK, a network for corporate professional support lawyers.

Prior and Present Employment

- Before joining Dentons, she practised for 10 years as a transactional lawyer.

Areas of focus

Practices

- Corporate
- Mergers and Acquisitions

Education

- University of Durham, 1983, BA, Law (Hons)

Admissions and qualifications

- Solicitor, Senior Courts of England and Wales