

Bruce Hale

Senior Associate

Senior Associate

Glasgow

D + 44 14 1271 5319

M +44 74 6733 9351

bruce.hale@dentons.com

Overview

Bruce is a senior associate in our transactional Construction team based in Glasgow. He completed his law degree in Scotland before moving to Sydney, Australia where he practiced construction law at Dentons Sydney and a boutique construction firm before relocating to Glasgow.

Bruce has extensive experience in all forms of development, building and construction matters including commercial, industrial, residential, retirement living and public infrastructure.

Bruce regularly drafts and negotiates bespoke and standard-based works, design, appointment, ECI, access and development agreements tailored to clients' particular needs. He also advises on collateral warranties, bonds and guarantees.

Experience

- Confidential client: Advising an ASX-listed infrastructure, rail and mining contractor in respect of commercial, teaming, bidding and contracting agreements for use in projects and joint ventures across Australia.
- Confidential client: Advising one of Australia's largest flour producers on the upgrade of various manufacturing facilities throughout Australia.
- Confidential client: Advising an ASX-listed mining company in relation to an EPC contract with an ASX-listed infrastructure contractor for the construction of a mine in New South Wales.
- Confidential client: Advising a multinational infrastructure company regarding its engagement by a state government authority for the development, construction and delivery of a large, mixed-use city centre development.
- Confidential client: Advising an ASX-listed infrastructure and engineering company on its engagement by a state government authority for the upgrade of the rail network system in New South Wales.
- Confidential client: Advising a large main contractor in respect of contracts with state government bodies for the upgrade of highways in New South Wales and Queensland.

- Confidential client: Advising a prominent religious body on various large-scale aged care and retirement living developments in New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory.
- Confidential client: Advising a multinational developer on the preparation of a contract suite for use in all Australian states and territories and New Zealand for its retirement village business
- Confidential client: Advising an ASX-listed building products supplier and other prominent subcontractors on various large-scale industrial, commercial and residential developments across Australia.
- Confidential client: Advising various multinational and national developers on large-scale, high value residential developments.
- Confidential client: Secondment to an ASX-listed property developer to work in their in-house transactional Construction legal team.

Activities and Affiliations

Memberships

- Member, Law Society of New South Wales

Prior and Present Employment

- Senior Associate, Dentons UK and Middle East (2019 to date)
- Senior Associate, Bradbury Legal (2015 – 2018)
- Lawyer, Dentons Australia (2010 – 2014)

Areas of focus

Practices

- Project Development
- Real Estate

Education

- College of Law, 2012, Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, New South Wales, Australia
- University of Glasgow, 2008, LLB (Hons)

Admissions and qualifications

- Solicitor, Supreme Court of New South Wales, 2012