

Careers in Europe

Dentons is a full service global law firm operating in many key cities across Europe.

Europe is home to some of the world's strongest economies and includes established world-leaders in trade and commerce, as well as thriving, innovative, developing economies.. You will gain experience working with lawyers who specialize in solving the challenges our clients face in individual countries, as well as driving their cross-border aspirations.

We recruit from varied backgrounds to make sure we find people with the greatest potential who thrive in a global setting and who can combine this with strong domestic knowledge, in order for us to provide a depth of expertise and breadth of representation to our clients. In return we offer the opportunity to work in a dynamic environment where individuals can continue their personal development while contributing to the continued success of the firm.

We believe in diversity and are committed to hiring, developing and retaining the top talent on which our success is built. We encourage you to contact the office you are interested in to learn more about developing your career with us.

All applications are treated fairly and equally. Our dedicated HR professionals work closely with the local office partners to facilitate our recruitment processes in compliance with applicable local legislation. Please select the category of position you are searching for from the links on this page and you will have access to further information, current postings and the relevant local office contacts.

Below is a list of our current vacancies.

Business Services Professionals

Qualified Legal

Support Staff

Graduates and Apprentices