

Paralegal Services in the United States

The Dentons US Paralegal Services program consists of over 140 professionals who perform practice specific, substantive legal work and work side-by-side with our lawyers to provide clients with the highest level of service. Paralegal Services team members utilize their knowledge of legal concepts and procedural practices combined with organizational and technology skills to deliver value to our clients.

Dentons is always looking to invest in the highest-quality talent. Paralegal Services team members have initiative, intellectual curiosity and a strong commitment to client service. It's critical that our people share our strong belief in corporate social responsibility, civic engagement, pro bono work, and our commitment to diversity and inclusion, environmentalism and sustainability. Our program has a rich tradition of professional development, extensive practice and technology related trainings and paralegal association engagement designed to promote the paralegal profession.

Our program is designed to provide opportunities to a wide range of candidates at various stages of your legal career. Whether you are a career paralegal looking for a new challenging and rewarding environment (Paralegal), have a few years of paralegal/legal experience and are looking to advance (Case Assistant) or are just seeking an introduction to law firm life (Project Assistant), our tiered Paralegal Services program has an opportunity for you.

We are committed to ensuring that all applicants receive an equal opportunity for employment. We take steps to attract applicants from all backgrounds. Recruitment decisions are made without regard to gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy, age, citizenship status, veteran status, disability or religion.
