Overview

David is a partner in our Banking & Finance team in Sydney, and has experience acting for a range of ADI's, finance companies, vendor introducers and equipment lessors.

David's focus is on advising clients on all aspects of regulatory and compliance issues and has particular experience advising on the transition to and compliance with the National Consumer Credit Protection (NCCP) regime and the associated Unfair Contract Terms aspects of the Australian Consumer Law. David has also advised receivers and administrators on PPSA issues regarding the recovery of equipment and the validity and enforceability of PPS registrations.

David regularly presents at forums, focusing on the current needs of both industry and corporate counsel in handling the changes to and ongoing compliance with the NCCP, PPSA and associated legislation. He is also on the editorial panel of the Australian Banking and Finance Law Bulletin.
