

March 29, 2021

We are pleased to inform you that, effective March 29, 2021, Davis, Brown, Koehn, Shors & Roberts, P.C. has formally joined Dentons and we have changed our name to Dentons Davis Brown PC.

We look forward to continuing to be of service to you as Dentons Davis Brown.

Enclosed please find our Terms of Business, which will apply to our relationship to the extent not inconsistent with the material terms and conditions of any existing engagement agreement.

One of the foundational attributes of this combination is to ensure that, while giving our clients access to skilled lawyers throughout the United States and worldwide, we and the other members of Dentons' US Region preserve our "in and of the community roots." This includes maintaining our unique and historical billing practices. Therefore, we remain solely responsible for setting the rates that we charge, and any adjustments will be made only in accordance with our established considerations and procedures.

Of course, please contact your relationship lawyer or other professional if you have any questions about this letter or the Terms of Business, or with respect to any aspect of our representation of you.

For more information on our new combined capabilities, please visit <https://www.dentons.com/>.

We are excited about the enhanced opportunities to be of continued service to you. Thank you for your continued trust and confidence in our firm.

Very truly yours,

John C. Pietila
President
Dentons Davis Brown PC

Enclosure Terms of Business, W-9

Terms of Business

Dentons Davis Brown PC

March 2021

Welcome to Dentons.

Thank you for choosing Dentons to represent you. These Terms of Business and the Engagement Letter form our Engagement Agreement.

Dentons and You

1. The Letter sets out the scope of our representation and identifies you as our sole client. We do not represent any other persons or entities, including your parent, subsidiaries, and affiliates, unless named in the Letter. Our advice and work is provided solely for your benefit and relates only to the matters set out in the Letter. The Terms apply as soon as we start acting on your instructions, regardless of whether or not you have signed the Letter.
2. The shareholders of Dentons Davis Brown PC also are partners of Dentons United States LLP, which is the US Region member of Dentons Group (a Swiss Verein), whose members and their respective subsidiaries, affiliates and related entities provide legal services in different locations, each of which is its own Legal Practice. For a list of each Legal Practice by location, see dentons.com/legalnotices.
3. This Engagement Agreement is between you and Dentons Davis Brown PC only and not any other Dentons Legal Practice within or outside the US Region, or any entity or individual. We will conduct ourselves in accordance with the professional responsibility rules applicable in the jurisdictions in which we render services.
4. Other Dentons Legal Practices outside the US Region represent many clients in different geographies, including entities and individuals that may enter into transactions or have disputes with you. Unless such other Dentons Legal Practice is specifically engaged by you or on your behalf outside the US Region, you agree that those representations by other Dentons Legal Practices do not conflict with our representation of you, and that you will not assert that other Dentons Legal Practices outside the US Region are precluded from representing those entities and individuals.

5. While Dentons Davis Brown PC remains solely responsible to you for this engagement, we may involve other lawyers and professionals from other Dentons Legal Practices, within or outside the US Region, to provide services. Unless we state otherwise, we will do so by subcontract. You agree that we may pay or apportion part of our fees and costs for the work in a manner that may be considered a referral fee in some jurisdictions.

Our Working Relationship

6. Effective representation requires open and honest communication. We need you to provide us with clear and timely instructions, relevant information and documents, and make yourself available for consultation.
7. You should carefully check for any insurance policies that might relate to the work we do for you and notify your insurers promptly to protect your rights. Unless you disclose these policies and we agree to advise on them in the Letter, we are not responsible for advising you on the existence or applicability of any insurance coverage.

8. We may communicate with you using any reasonable method, including electronic communications, like email, which may not be absolutely secure and present risk of interception or copying.
9. Generally, communications between a lawyer and client regarding legal advice are privileged and confidential. You may jeopardize these protections by disclosing communications to others. You agree we are under no duty to disclose to you any information that is confidential to another client or any other person.

Advance Clearance of Conflicts of Interest

10. Each Dentons Legal Practice represents a wide variety of entities and individuals, some of whom may be, for instance, your borrowers, investors, shareholders, creditors, or other parties with conflicting interests in a litigation, arbitration, bankruptcy, insolvency or other matter. As a condition of our representation of you, you agree that, without further notice, we may represent other clients in matters, even if they are directly adverse to you, as long as: (1) those matters are not substantially related to our representation of you; or (2) we screen our lawyers and professionals who have such information from any involvement in the adverse representation. Of course, we will not use any confidential information received from you in any way inconsistent with our professional responsibilities.

Fees and Costs

11. Our fees are set out in the Letter. Hourly rates may be adjusted from time to time.
12. We may charge and you agree to pay for costs including travel, delivery services, imaging, printing, court fees, auditing and assurance services, and other expenses. For items we purchase in bulk or through fixed fee arrangements, such as computerized legal research, technology, and support services, we will charge you a rate reasonably apportioned to you. You agree to pay for third-party costs, such as experts, consultants, local counsel, retained by us on your behalf. In some circumstances, we may advance costs on your behalf and you agree to reimburse us promptly.
13. Unless expressly stated otherwise, estimates we provide are solely for planning purposes, subject to change, and reflect an assessment of fees or costs if a matter proceeds in accordance with our assumptions. This is neither a floor nor a ceiling on your obligation to pay, as actual fees and costs may deviate significantly from the estimate, either favorably or adversely. We will be happy to periodically update an estimate if requested. However, in the absence of such a request, we undertake no obligation to update or revise any estimate as a matter progresses or as actual fees and costs are realized.
14. All fees and costs of any Dentons Legal Practice, experts or third parties that we state or estimate exclude any sales, use, excise, transfer, value-added or similar taxes; any such taxes will be included in our invoices to you and are payable by you. If you or another payer of those fees, costs and taxes is required, on account of any taxes, to make any deduction when paying our invoices, you must increase the overall payment so that we receive a net sum equal to our full invoiced amount.
15. Our policy is to bill monthly, except that we reserve the right to issue an interim bill and to change the frequency of billing and the time for payment. If you disagree with any invoice, please contact us immediately, otherwise we will understand that the invoice is agreeable to you. Our invoices are payable when delivered on the terms set forth therein, and you remain responsible for paying them even if you have an arrangement with a third party payor for payment. If full payment is not received when due, we reserve the right to suspend services, terminate and/or seek withdrawal, charge reasonable interest, and hold you responsible for any collection costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees.
16. In adversarial proceedings, you agree that as of 90 days before any scheduled trial or arbitration date (or a later time that we may make such request), all fees and costs incurred up to that point will be paid and you will either provide us with a deposit (or augment any existing deposit) or make another satisfactory arrangement to ensure payment of all fees and costs estimated to be incurred from that point through the end of trial or arbitration.

Privacy, Data Protection and Other Regulation

17. We are often asked for information about our experience. You consent to our public disclosure that you are a client and a general description of our work for you.
18. Anti-money laundering, anti-bribery, anti-terrorist and similar laws require compliance with client identification, verification, and other rules. We may not be able to represent you until we have all the information we need for these purposes.
19. Dentons is committed to ensuring the privacy and confidentiality of personal data disclosed to us in the course of our work for you. We will handle personal data you send to us about you, your employees, agents, contractors or other individuals in accordance with data protection and privacy standards equivalent to or higher than those required by law. We may transfer such data between locations in order to provide legal services to you.
20. Where we process personal data as provided above we do so as a data controller and we ultimately take responsibility for carrying out the data in compliance with applicable data protection and privacy laws. An overview of the categories of personal data we collect and how we use it is provided in the Privacy Policy that you may find at www.dentons.com. You confirm to us that, to the extent reasonable, you will communicate this Privacy Policy to any individuals whose personal data you provide to us. Any personal data supplied by us to you about our employees and/or any other individuals may only be used for the expressed purposes for which that information is provided to you.
21. We do not tolerate bribery or corruption.

Your File and Our Records Retention

22. Absent professional obligations or written direction from you to the contrary, we may dispose of all records relating to the representation seven years after we last performed work on the matter, without further notice to you. We need not keep documents containing our lawyer work product, mental impressions, notes, drafts, and emails and those documents will not be considered to be part of your client file.

Termination

23. You may terminate the engagement at any time for any reason. We may terminate the engagement at any time, consistent with our ethical obligations. We expressly reserve the right to stop acting for you, and you expressly consent to our right to terminate, if you fail to pay for amounts invoiced or requested. You remain responsible for paying fees and costs related to work performed before the end of the engagement, and we will not be liable for any resulting loss.

Completion of Engagement

24. Our representation of you will end when we have completed the services described in the Letter, send our final invoice, or, unless otherwise agreed, after six months of furnishing no billable services to you, whichever occurs sooner, without the need for further written confirmation. Any new relationship will require a new Engagement Letter, notwithstanding any communications or administrative action after that period.

Translations

25. If we use or prepare a translation, you should be aware that words and legal concepts used in one language may not have equivalents in another. You should not assume that any translation exactly replicates the original text.

Entire Agreement

26. The Engagement Agreement cannot be modified by any policies, procedures, guidelines, correspondence, or other document from you unless agreed to in writing by a shareholder of Dentons Davis Brown P.C. If there is a conflict between the Terms and the Letter, the provisions of the Letter control. If any part of the Engagement Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, it shall not form part of the agreement and the balance shall remain enforceable and shall not be affected.

7 List account number(s) here (optional)

8 Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.
- If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
