

Overview

Dentons' Government Affairs and Public Policy group in Canada comprises a world-class team of former politicians, policy leaders and leading lawyers who assist clients with their policy, business, legislative, legal, political and regulatory needs at local, provincial, national and international levels. We leverage our full service legal platform to achieve our clients' goals, and strategically address complex issues and mitigate risk in an increasingly complex policy and regulatory landscape.

By knowing the legislative and political "pulse" across Canada and around the world, we offer clients a unique insight into the rapidly changing world around us. In the modern era, investment decisions, asset management strategies, and business development initiatives must only be made after seeking premium legal and policy advice; advice that stems from our professionals' unparalleled collective experience, networks and capability.

We offer services to clients across our six Canadian offices, with support from our leading Public Policy and Regulation practice in the US and around the globe. With more than 7,700 lawyers and strategic advisors in 69 countries, Dentons is your global legal and strategy advisor in any market.
