

Government in Russia, CIS and the Caucasus

Overview

Whether you are a government department or partnering with a government body entering a market or navigating reform, Dentons can provide comprehensive advice to help you achieve your goals, understand regulatory regimes, and meet the ever-changing legal landscape of the future.

Present in the CIS for over 30 years, we know the law, business environment, and political decision centers. Our lawyers understand the needs of central and local governments, state companies, regulatory bodies, public sector agencies and not-for-profit organizations.

Dentons' lawyers have in-depth knowledge of public international law and wide experience in CIS and EU countries. We have lawyers who have served previously as senior members of legal departments of foreign affairs ministries and intergovernmental organizations and who are ready to partner with you.

We can assist you in safeguard investigations before the European Commission, Eurasian Economic Commission and in third countries, in EU law- and policy-making and in negotiating WTO and bilateral/regional trade agreements.

Our lawyers have significant experience in advising government bodies on projects across the entire infrastructure landscape, including PPPs, concessions and other types of operation and maintenance arrangements, and legislation drafting.

We are experienced in assisting our clients with the successful resolution of disputes involving international investments and states and state-owned companies.

Look to our lawyers for effective solutions across the government sector.
