

Overview

Our experience in Infrastructure and Construction in Argentina, includes;

- Drafting and negotiation of design and engineering agreements
- Drafting and negotiation of EPC, turnkey and EPCM agreements and their variants
- Negotiation and preparation of agreements for contractors and suppliers
- Proper usage of contract templates based on the project's needs
- Strategic and legal advice related to the management and interpretation of the project agreement
- Legal advice oriented to the real-time dispute avoidance and resolution
- Management and advice related to all documents generated from the execution of the agreement
- Support during the execution of the agreement; compliance of obligations and exercise of the project rights
- Client training regarding contract management
- Legal advice on public-private partnership agreements (O&M, DB, DBO, DBM, BTO, etc.)
- Purchasing management strategy
- Project structuring
- Risk allocation and management
- Regulatory advice and advice on integrity and compliance matters
- Public or private bids
- Real estate trusts and other financing methods
- Hotels and buildings construction contracts
- Urban developments, country clubs and private neighborhoods
- Urban and tax treatment