

Overview

As the pace of innovation increases, you need every edge to stay ahead of the curve, increase market share and capitalize on your investments. Whether you are an emerging growth company, a multinational corporation, a venture capital firm or an investment bank, Dentons meets your legal and business needs in the US technology arena.

From software to IT to technology suppliers, Dentons' US Technology team understands every corner of this rapidly evolving sector. Turn to us for the optimal blend of strategic, business, legal and policy advice rooted in extensive experience.

No matter your size, scope or strategic objectives, our lawyers and professionals deliver intelligent solutions that help you minimize risk and achieve better results. Rely on Dentons for your complete range of business needs, including:

- Developing and introducing new products
- Expanding into new markets
- Safeguarding intellectual property
- Licensing and strategic outsourcing
- Mergers and acquisitions