

Overview

Whether you're an underwriter, issuer or investor, you require a trusted advisor with a forward-thinking vision—one who sees the value of investing today to maintain capabilities and market share. Dentons Guevara & Gutierrez is one of the most experienced legal advisors in Bolivia in structuring of private equity funds, stock transactions at the Bolivian Stock Exchange, and compliance of financial laws.

Maximize your opportunities with a partner who adapts to the realities of today's marketplace. From helping to develop new best practices to sharing the risk of a deal that doesn't close, Dentons leverages an agile approach to adapt in a changing landscape.

The firm has solid expertise in the different phases of an investment:

- Structuring and forming the private equity fund (PEF)
- Raising funds from national and foreign investors
- Pursuing the investment to maturation and exit, through either sale to a strategic investor or an IPO of the invested company
- Advice on market transactions on exchange and over-the-counter securities in Bolivian markets
- Regulatory compliance for listed companies, stock exchanges and securities trading platforms
- Delisting of companies
- Corporate governance matters for listed and publicly-held companies
- Tender offers
- Initial public offerings, listings of companies and follow-on offerings of equity, debt and convertible securities
- Private placements

With lawyers working in the world's largest financial centers and active on all the major exchanges, Dentons offers you access to potential funding sources across the globe. Regardless of location, you will be supported in your equity capital markets transactions by an experienced local and global team.
