

Overview

With companies operating globally and markets becoming more interconnected, Competition and Antitrust Law is gaining increasing significance. We maintain excellent relations to German competition authorities and the European Commission. Therefore, you can rely on us to protect your interests in German and European antitrust and competition matters. We regularly appear before German and European courts and collaborate with you to face challenges and achieve the desired results by linking first-class expertise in various fields of law and jurisdictions—tailored to your requirements, wherever you need us.

Key service areas

Our team advises companies and public institutions from a wide range of industries on highly complex and trendsetting Competition and Antitrust Law issues and represents clients in politically sensitive projects, in particular:

- Merger control proceedings with the European Commission and the Federal Cartel Office
- Worldwide merger control coordination
- Safeguarding interests in antitrust and abuse proceedings under German and EU law
- Judicial and extrajudicial enforcement and defence of antitrust claims, including strategic advice in advance and arbitration of disputes
- Antitrust audits and consulting as well as training compliance
- Antitrust advice on joint ventures and franchise agreements, in bidding and award procedures as well as in the field of Intellectual Property law
- Support related to state aid (e.g. to avoid legal conflicts, state aid complaints)
