

Dentons Response Desk

The Dentons Response Desk is a service specifically designed for General Counsels, Chief Compliance Officers and Data Protection Officers: It's an advisory service for the challenges keeping you awake at night!

Compliance incidents may happen at any time. Dentons provides relief by setting up instant report systems to allow key witnesses to address concerns via the Dentons Response Desk.

Our hotlines will automatically find the right lawyer for each language in all jurisdictions, which is covered by our Dentons offices and the Nextlaw Referral Network, to ensure the perfect approach.

Dentons' advisory service will not stop at the desk, we will follow through and ensure that challenges are met and solved. Dentons will collaborate with clients' legal departments to find cost-efficient and optimal solutions to the issues addressed.

Our Dentons Response Desk constitutes first-line risk management, and we are ready to work together on all further stages of your risk prevention schemes.
