

Overview

Dentons' Corporate Group in Canada is recognized for its consistent ability to structure, negotiate and close complex or routine transactions efficiently and effectively. We advise on a wide range of issues and transactions including mergers and acquisitions (public and private), private equity/venture capital, cross-border expansion, securities, corporate finance, joint ventures and partnerships, franchising, outsourcing, corporate governance and compliance and corporate reorganizations and restructurings.

On transactions involving specialized areas such as competition law, public policy, tax structuring or cross-border financing, our team of experienced lawyers provide practical, sound, sophisticated and innovative advice. Responsive and accessible, we get the job done for our clients and complete transactions on time and on budget.

Benefit from our local presence and expertise as well as our global reach. Dentons' multi-disciplined lawyers work together seamlessly across our national and global network to provide advice on transactions with multi-jurisdictional dimensions.

Dentons takes the time to learn about our clients' businesses and the challenges and opportunities they face in the industries in which they operate. With this knowledge, our group has had a long history of successes in helping our clients manage change and growth.
