

Overview

Dentons' Global Employment and Labor Group includes over 400 lawyers, spread across our offices, who regularly represent management in connection with employment and benefits related litigation, corporate and governmental investigations, executive compensation and counseling projects. With our global presence and contacts, we are one of only a few firms that can provide multinational businesses with a coordinated solution to all their employment and benefits needs throughout the world.

Our employment and labor lawyers are known for their creative, business-savvy counseling skills and, when necessary, their results-driven, highly successful litigation practice. Dentons represents local and multinational businesses with respect to the full range of workforce-related issues and matters, including those listed and linked below.

In addition to concentrating in certain industry sectors, we have collective, extensive experience representing employers in all industry sectors, including:

- Financial services
- Health care
- Education
- Mining
- Natural resources
- Energy
- Manufacturing
- Professional services
- Retail
- Real estate
- Hospitality
- Transport and infrastructure
