

Overview

Ranked as a leading banking and finance firm, our skill extends beyond structuring deals to enforcing them.

As a lender-focused firm, we act for international and domestic financiers, financial intermediaries, the four major Australian banks and insolvency practitioners in the full range of disputes.

Partner with a team ready to advise on:

- The perfection and enforcement of securities
- Secured and unsecured debt recovery
- Workout agreements
- Insolvency proceedings
- Fraud recovery
- Securities class actions
- Customer disputes
- Regulatory investigations

While we undertake debt recovery work across the board, we are the adviser that financial institutions and insolvency practitioners look to for recovering debts in the property and construction sector.

Where the dispute crosses borders, benefit from a team that can harness the dispute resolution support of colleagues around the globe.

Rely on a team experienced, knowledgeable and responsive to the often sensitive and complex issues raised in financial services disputes.
