

Cybersecurity and Data Breach Response

Tier 1:
Data Protection,
Privacy and Cybersecurity
– Legal 500, 2021

The
LEGAL 500

Every organisation has a business interest and a legal obligation to take appropriate steps to protect its data and systems and deal with incidents swiftly and effectively when they happen.

Data and cyber security breaches are a top corporate concern, exposing an organisation to significant risks

Key risks include loss of data, systems downtime, disruption to BAU, very significant fines and litigation risk as showcased by recent high-profile regulatory investigations, significant fines and court cases.

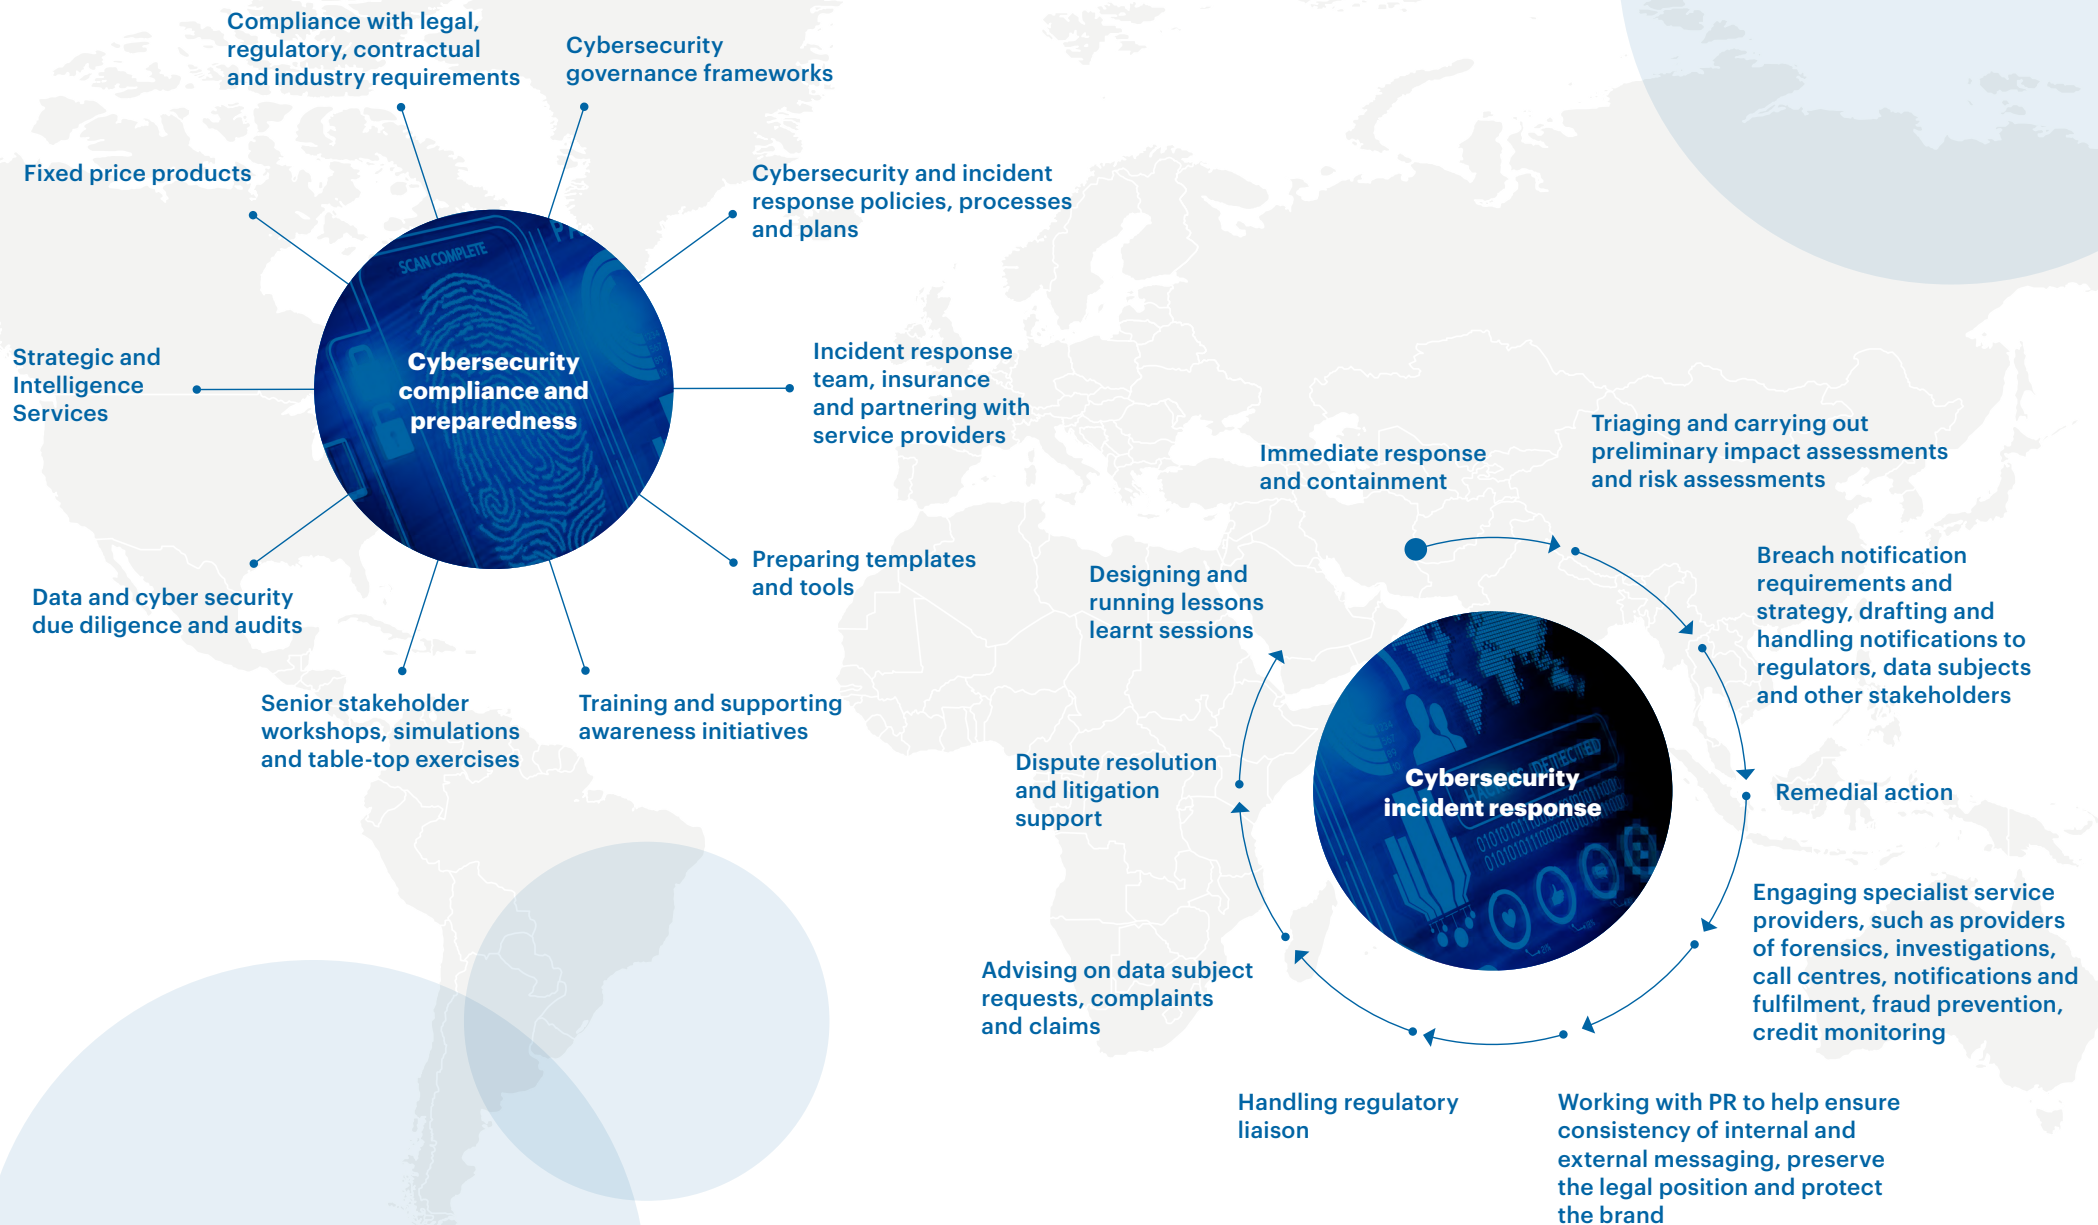

Taking the right approach to cybersecurity compliance and dealing with incidents swiftly and efficiently when they happen is essential, but can be challenging, especially if approached on a global scale.

- Market leading dedicated team: our privacy and cybersecurity specialists bring our insights, confidence and enterprise to the fore in everything we do for our clients. With 55 partners and 95 associates advising in 100+ jurisdictions worldwide, Dentons has one of the most sophisticated and largest dedicated privacy and cybersecurity teams across the globe with deep privacy and cybersecurity expertise in every region.
- Proven track record: we have extensive experience advising on all aspects of data and cyber security compliance and incident preparedness. Our lawyers have dealt with hundreds of breaches.
- Global cover: We can act rapidly when cross-border data breaches occur. Our global team includes leading privacy and cybersecurity lawyers in 100+ jurisdictions worldwide, with an additional external network of privacy and cybersecurity specialists in regions where we do not have office locations.
- Local expertise: in keeping with Dentons' polycentric approach, our lawyers are in and of the community which they serve and are immersed in the local culture, norms, expectations, legal traditions and business practices.
- Understanding your sector: Dentons advises clients in some of the world's biggest and most dynamic sectors, including financial institutions, aviation, technology, media and communications, energy and retail.
- Multidisciplinary teams: Our cybersecurity team includes experts across legal practices, such as financial regulatory, litigation, asset recovery, investigations and labour law relations. Together, we are well positioned to help you identify and implement the optimal business solution.
- Partnerships: We have partnerships and trusted relationships with leading cybersecurity consultancies, digital forensics, intelligence, investigations, insurance, e-discovery, legal tech solutions, call centre support, communications and PR support. We facilitate and work closely with specialist service providers to meet any requirements.
- Innovation: Dentons is at the forefront of innovation, whether in relation to legal tech or developing non-legal service lines, constantly looking for ways to innovate and improve client service. We can deploy innovative solutions to help you in your cybersecurity compliance and incident response efforts:
