

Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy in Australia

Overview

In the often sensitive and complex area of insolvency and restructuring, events change quickly, making it essential to have access to responsive, knowledgeable and experienced advisors.

Be supported by a national and global team with extensive experience and acknowledged skill in acting quickly in recovering debts and restructuring businesses to stem the flow of losses.

Whether you are a creditor, major shareholder, director, administrator or a receiver, we are driven to achieve the best possible outcome. Our commercial acumen and responsiveness is prized. We move quickly to understand your objectives, identify the key issues and develop strategy.

Avoiding costly litigation, time in court, unnecessary delays, and damaging publicity are all strategic priorities as we partner with you to quickly resolve issues, arrest further losses and find opportunities.

Whether you are a global financial institution, insolvency firm, shareholder or creditor, benefit from our advice in areas ranging from workouts, restructures, voluntary administrations (including deeds of company arrangements), receiverships, liquidations, schemes of arrangement, preference recovery actions, insolvent trading claims, bankruptcy, and personal insolvency arrangements.

Our inventiveness in pursuing the repayment of debt has involved testing existing law and setting precedent. Where your interests traverse borders and time zones, we leverage our top-tier talent from around the globe to bring solutions. Our offering is comprehensive—nationally and globally.

Skilled in the most complex and technical of matters, financial institutions and insolvency firms benefit from particular experience and advice on restructuring, insolvency and recovery strategies across a range of sectors including Financial Institutions, Real Estate, Construction, Mining and Energy, Hotels and Leisure, TMT and Manufacturing.

Our clients include the major Australian banks and financial institutions, insolvency practitioners and major Australian corporate entities.

Our significant domestic experience, combined with our globally connected team, enables us to meet your legal needs when and where they arise.

Your Key Contacts

Australasia

David McIntosh

Partner, Sydney
D+61 2 9035 7439

david.mcintosh@dentons.com

John Stragalinos

Partner and Head of Office,
Melbourne

D+61 3 9194 8341

M+61 412 745 085

john.stragalinos@dentons.com