

Securities and Corporate Finance in Russia, CIS and the Caucasus

Overview

When you seek advice on public offerings, corporate governance and other securities matters in the CIS, turn to Dentons.

Dentons lawyers represent domestic and international issuers, underwriters, buyout funds, investment dealers and venture funds in public and private securities transactions in the CIS and in foreign markets.

We have vast experience advising on corporate financings and related transactions—including innovative techniques and products relating to distributions and underwritings.

Key areas of service:

- Public offerings and private placements
- Listings and initial public offerings
- Cross-border financings and inter-listings with foreign exchanges
- Securitizations
- Trusts, partnerships and other income fund structures
- Tax implications of public and private financings
