

Overview

Every transaction involving money or property has tax consequences. Turn to Dentons' Tax practice in Bolivia to resolve these issues creatively and completely.

You can rely on our full-service tax team to provide authoritative tax advice in areas including M&A, real estate, mining and natural resources. Across Bolivia we advise corporations, trusts, partnerships and high net worth individuals. Your issues become ours to solve, from long-term tax planning to negotiating the tax aspects of a deal.

Trust a tax litigation team with extensive experience resolving tax disputes at all levels of government. With our successful track record handling both tax and litigation matters, we eliminate the need to delegate to litigators unfamiliar with tax law. As your legal partner, Dentons can achieve favorable resolutions at the administrative level, but we will litigate when necessary to achieve proper results.

Focused on your needs, we deliver effective, efficient and innovative solutions.

Key service areas:

- Tax planning and counseling
- International tax advice (cross-border transactions)
- Tax consultancy and compliance (direct and indirect taxes)
- Transactional and M&A due diligence
- Tax litigation
- Social security
- Import/export tax and duties
- Corporate reorganizations, acquisitions and divestitures
- High net worth

Your Key Contacts

Latin America and the Caribbean

Mauricio Dalman

Partner, Santa Cruz

D+591 3 3433594

mauricio.dalman@dentons.com