

Overview

At Dentons, our Tax Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice has global reach, multijurisdictional experience and local practitioners who are highly regarded in their particular jurisdictions. These jurisdictions include the US, Canada, the UK, Spain, France, Germany, Poland, Czech Republic, Russia, Kazakhstan, Hungary, Romania, and Slovakia.

We represent a broad range of clients, including multinational companies, closely held businesses, high net worth individuals, trusts, estates and often other tax advisors whether they are lawyers or accountants. Given the depth and breadth of Dentons' Tax Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice, we are particularly well-suited to assist multinational companies facing large dollar, global tax disputes that implicate numerous countries, tax regimes and dispute resolution procedures.
