Estate and Trust Planning

Overview

Dentons' Trusts, Estates and Wealth Preservation Group has the experience and expertise to handle planning of any level of complexity, to carry out our clients' wishes and bring about the orderly transfer of wealth during life or at death. Regardless of a client's net worth, planning revolves around specific desires, circumstances and when appropriate, problems.

We offer tax and planning advice for local jurisdictions, but can also provide planning that encompasses the needs of clients who have assets or beneficiaries in most any part of the globe.

Today's families are complex. Dentons helps clients devise and structure plans that pass wealth from one generation to the next, meet clients' particular desires, account for the complicated present or potential problems of beneficiaries and the complex nature of the assets involved, and minimize transfer taxes.

Areas of focus include:

- Irrevocable Trusts
