

Overview

Tax disputes can be costly and time consuming. Whether you are an individual, a fiduciary, an entrepreneur, a global corporation or a not-for-profit organization, you want to resolve tax-related controversies as quickly, inexpensively and effectively as possible.

Face these challenges with savvy legal representation. With Dentons' Trust, Estates and Wealth Preservation Group by your side, you gain an important ally as you address contentious tax matters.

Leverage our global experience to handle your income, gift, estate or other tax issues or criminal tax proceedings, locally, nationally or internationally. Gain key insight through our risk assessment and prevention planning.

Rely on our legal talent from the pre-audit planning phase through any court proceedings, and at all stages in between. If a case goes to trial, Dentons is prepared to go to battle or negotiate a settlement. We have represented taxpayers in some of the most high profile tax cases in recent years.
