

Mergers and Acquisitions in the Aviation and Aerospace Sector in Russia, CIS and the Caucasus

Aviation and Aerospace

This complex industry ranges from aviation and aerospace service companies to airlines, charter companies, private operators, manufacturers, aircraft leasing companies and other financial institutions, airports, and governmental agencies. It's an industry where you want specialists with aviation expertise, access to an experienced multijurisdictional team, and experts on the ground in the places you do business.

Dentons' lawyers know the aviation industry. We combine global expertise with local knowledge in many areas, including:

- Asset-based financing
- Joint ventures and mergers and acquisitions
- Manufacturing, selling, purchasing and leasing aircraft and equipment
- Local and international regulatory regimes and treaties
- Navigation issues
- Insurance and risk management
- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Commercial and government contracts
- Intellectual property
- Aviation claims
- Disaster preparation and response (crisis management)

Working together, you get all the skills our lawyers have developed representing leading airlines, manufacturers, aviation service providers, airport developers, lessors, financiers, insurers and regulatory bodies. So wherever you fit within the aviation industry, Dentons can help.

Mergers and Acquisitions

Our Global M&A Group understands how to get deals done, whether in one locality or across national and jurisdictional borders. Turn to Dentons to achieve a seamless, successful transaction when you need to coordinate competing legal requirements or navigate overlapping regulatory issues.

By tapping into our global reach, you can avoid the hassle of managing autonomous counsel in multiple jurisdictions, while being able to rest assured that you are working with professionals with a deep knowledge of each jurisdiction.

At Dentons, we believe that geographic borders should not present obstacles to a deal—and we prove this for our clients every day.

We frequently act on transactions across multiple jurisdictions. Many of our recent transactions involve multiple Dentons offices collaborating internationally and are representative of our approach and our success.

Russia, CIS and the Caucasus

Dentons bridges cultures and markets to deliver a full-service solution across the CIS.

With cross-cultural experience and a transactional track record starting in the 1970s, Dentons offers you one of the most extensive CIS practices. Our offices in Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Georgia and Azerbaijan are supported by a team of dedicated multilingual lawyers based in key financial and political centers, including Frankfurt, Berlin, Paris, Brussels, London, New York and Washington. In the CIS countries in which we do not have offices, including Armenia, Belarus, Kyrgyzstan and Moldova we enjoy close working relationships with leading local law firms.

Whether you are a Fortune 500/Global Fortune 100 international company or financial institution, private equity fund, start-up, state-owned company, international financial institution or a not-for-profit organization, Dentons can advise in connection with your business, investments and operations in CIS countries. We also advise fast-growing companies as well as high-net-worth individuals from Russia and other CIS countries in connection with local and cross-border transactions.

To address all your transactional and advisory needs, our practice covers the full range of corporate, tax, banking and finance, real estate, competition, employment, energy, mining, intellectual property, and litigation and arbitration matters.

Dentons can give you a recognized depth of global and domestic expertise and a breadth of representation backed by solid working relationships with regional firms and local and federal governments. Our team's experience spans sectors including automotive, aviation and aerospace, energy, entertainment and sports, financial institutions, forest products and agribusiness, hotels and leisure, infrastructure and PPP, life sciences, luxury, fashion and beauty, media, mining, retail, technology and telecommunications.
