

Gareth Steen

Partner

Partner

Dublin

D +353 1 5828115

gareth.steen@dentons.com

Overview

Gareth is Head of Restructuring and Disputes in our Dublin office. He has a first-class reputation in the market and is rated as one of the top practitioners in the country.

Gareth advises Ireland's leading restructuring and insolvency practitioners as examiners, receivers and liquidators in complex mandates across all sectors, often with a cross-border element.

He acts for companies, creditors and other stakeholders in distressed situations.

Gareth is a highly experienced commercial litigator with a particular focus on the real estate and financial services sectors.

Recognition

- Gareth is "a highly commercial solicitor; he has the ability to take up issues really quickly and understand where we're coming from as a client." Chambers & Partners 2021
- Gareth is "very commercial and practical." Chambers & Partners, 2020
- Gareth's "ability to put himself in his client's shoes, understand the risks and work with us to develop an appropriate strategy sets him apart." Legal 500, 2020
- Gareth is an "experienced and very good solicitor in the market." Chambers & Partners, 2019
- Gareth Steen is "technically strong" and a "go-to insolvency lawyer." Legal 500, 2019

Activities and Affiliations

Memberships

- Council Member, Restructuring & Insolvency Ireland

- INSOL Europe
- IBA Insolvency Section

Prior and Present Employment

- Partner, Dentons (September 2020)
- Partner, Mason Hayes & Curran (2010 – 2020)
- Lawyer, A&L Goodbody (2006 – 2010)

Areas of focus

Practices

- Real Estate
- Commercial Litigation
- Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Industry sectors

- Financial Institutions
- Retail
- Energy
- Construction
- Government Agencies

Education

- Queen's University Belfast, 1999, Psychology, (Hons)

Admissions and qualifications

- Solicitor, Law Society of Ireland, 2009