Overview

Gary is a member of Dentons' Tax practice group. He has extensive experience counseling clients on the US and international tax consequences of various transactions, restructurings and securities offerings, and advising generally on strategic joint ventures, mergers, acquisitions and a wide array of liquidity transactions.

Gary is a founding member and managing director of Alchemy Capital Planning LLC, a strategic affiliate of Dentons. He has practiced law in both Canada and the United States, focusing on international transactions.

Gary has written and lectured extensively on various topics, including the efficient structuring of business investments. He co-authored the chapter on cross-border tax issues in US Taxation of Foreign Controlled Business (Warren Gorham & Lamont) and the chapter on financing and investment products in The New Era of Investment Banking (Probus Publishing).
