Africa Desk in Calgary

Whether your business needs advice on mining, oil and gas, liquified natural gas (LNG), forestry, technology, manufacturing, real estate, financial services, capital markets or infrastructure development, Dentons' Africa Desk in Calgary has the legal expertise you need.

Let us help with Africa's foreign investment laws and other regulations, and tax advice regarding your deal structure.

From exploration and development to production and reclamation, we can advise you on every aspect of your extractive industry project. If you're a mining or oil company, tap into our knowledge of capital markets and financing matters. We act for investment banking firms and global financial and technical advisors. Leverage our experience in the energy and mining industries, including oil and gas, LNG, pipelines, energy services and infrastructure.

Look to us for advice on:

- Project finance
- Commercial contracts
- Taxation

- Labor relations
- Siting
- Permitting
- Environmental assessment and other regulatory matters

We regularly assist industry participants with corporate and asset acquisitions and dispositions, and advise large industrial end-users on energy cost-hedging strategies, emissions trading and energy contracts.
