

Overview

Dentons Lead is an independent, full-service law firm, based in Angola, with a strong international focus. Already considered among the strongest players in the Angolan market, Dentons Lead assists top clients from all over the world.

As a full-service Law Firm, we focus on specialization with the aim to provide the highest quality legal services, tailored to client's needs, in all areas of Law.

Our deep knowledge of the Angolan legal market, its specificities and challenges enable us to assist our clients in an efficient, cost-effective and responsible manner. Dentons Lead seeks to assert itself through high-level legal services and expert advice to assist clients both based in Angola and internationally. We provide experienced and specialized legal services with the utmost sense of integrity.

Our non-conformist approach, along with our dynamism, is a reflection of our desire to be innovative and adaptable. The Dentons Lead team is composed of a highly dynamic and experienced group of lawyers, with multidisciplinary expertise in core areas of Angolan Business Law. Dentons Lead has been working on a regular basis, in partnership, with top global Law firms, in significant international business operations.
